

DISABILITY SPORT & RECREATION | MONTHLY eNEWSLETTER

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY

In this edition...

Yarra Trams continues its support of Disability Sport & Recreation

The final countdown

New look Disability Sport & Recreation Festival

DSR at the Royal Children's Hospital

Inspired by Wimbledon? Give vision impaired tennis a go

Score! your perfect sport and recreation match

Free Come and Try Netball Clinic with Melbourne Vixens

Do you have World Cup fever?

Wheelchair basketball in

Yarra Trams continues its support of Disability Sport & Recreation

Disability Sport & Recreation is proud to announce Yarra Trams as the major sponsor of Vortex, our monthly newsletter. From time to time, we'll bring you a message from Yarra Trams. This month we learn about their vision for making the tram network more accessible to everyone. Read more...

The final countdown

Bon voyage to our 21 CyclePower participants, who fly out to Thailand on 4th July. You can follow their progress on Facebook. The team, including seven handcyclists, will be riding 600kms through Thailand,

Bendigo

Victorians in the green and gold

catching up with local Thai cycling and disability groups along the way. Read more...

New look Disability Sport & Recreation Festival

The 2014 Disability Sport & Recreation Festival will be bigger and better than ever! With events spanning four days, from Tuesday 2nd December to Friday 5th December, there's plenty to choose from.

With a new and improved Festival format, we wanted to bring you a new Festival website to match. Thank you to Semcore for helping us put it together. Read more...

DSR at the Royal Children's Hospital

Each month, we team up with a State Sporting Association or inclusive sports provider to run introductory sports sessions for patients from the Royal Children's Hospital. Read more...

Inspired by Wimbledon? Give vision-impaired tennis a go

Blind Sports Victoria offers vision-impaired tennis open to anyone wanting to give it a go. Sessions are held at the home of tennis, the National Tennis Centre, during school term. Read more...

Score! your perfect sport and recreation match

Start your sport or recreation search on Score! this September. We're building an easy-to-use online service, available on your mobile, tablet or computer, to help you find disability sport or recreation programs around Victoria that are just right for you. Look out for the Top Score programs that have everyone raving and know you're in good hands. Our volunteers are contacting sport and recreation service providers now to arrange free listings. Read more...

Free Come and Try Netball Clinic with Melbourne Vixens

Netball Wodonga is running a six week All Abilities Netball Program, starting with a FREE Come and Try Clinic conducted by Melbourne Vixens players. Read more...

Do you have World Cup fever?

7-a-side football is soccer for people with cerebral palsy, acquired brain injury or those who have experienced stroke. There are opportunities from beginners to Paralympic representation. Read more...

Wheelchair basketball in Bendigo

The Bendigo Wheelchair Basketball Program is a development program for adults and children with a mobility restriction to assist with learning all there is to know about the game in a fun, supportive and social environment. Read more...

Victorians in the green and gold

It's a busy time for sport. The Australian Wheelchair Rugby Team claimed Gold in the Canada Cup, the Women's Wheelchair Basketball Team competed in World Championships and the Men's Wheelchair Basketball Team is lining up for their World Championships. And don't forget the Commonwealth Games are kicking off this July! Read more...

